

Privacy Policy

Effective Date: July 2026

At GodKidsStudio, your privacy is important to us. We are committed to protecting the personal information you share with us and using it responsibly.

When you visit or subscribe to GodKidsStudio, we may collect your name, email address, membership information, and website usage data. Billing information is processed securely through Stripe. GodKidsStudio does not store your credit card or payment information.

We use your information to create and manage your membership, process subscriptions, provide access to members-only content, communicate important account information, respond to customer support requests, and improve our educational services.

We do not sell, rent, or share your personal information with third parties for marketing purposes.

GodKidsStudio may use cookies and similar technologies to improve website performance, remember your preferences, and enhance your browsing experience.

GodKidsStudio is designed for children and families; however, memberships and purchases must be made by a parent, guardian, or adult. We do not knowingly collect personal information directly from children.

Our website uses trusted third-party services, including Wix for website hosting and membership management, and Stripe for secure payment processing. These providers maintain their own privacy and security practices.

We take reasonable measures to protect your personal information from unauthorized access, disclosure, or misuse.

You may request access to, correction of, or deletion of your personal information by contacting us. You may also unsubscribe from marketing emails at any time using the unsubscribe link included in those emails.

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. Any changes will be posted on this page with an updated effective date.
